Hanze

Course: International Finance & Economics 2 credits: 5

Course code	IFCB19IFE2A
Name	International Finance & Economics 2
Study year	2026-2027
ECTS credits	5
Language	English
Coordinator	A. Boelkens
Modes of delivery	Lecture Tutorial
Assessments	International Finance & Economics 2 - Computer, organised by STAD examinations

Learning outcomes

1. The student knows how risks can be measured on financial markets and is able to analyse the impact of risks on the pricing of financial titles.
2. The student is able to explain the pricing of stocks and bonds.
3. The student is able to identify financial risks on the financial markets, knows what financial tools can be used to control these risks and is able to describe these tools.
4. The student is able to analyse pricing on the international currency market and how this pricing affects the international competitiveness of companies and is able to describe how exchange rate policy can be implemented.
5. The student is able to describe the policy of the central bank, to interpret the instruments of monetary policy and to analyse the impact of monetary policy on the economy.
6. The student is able to apply statistical skills in the context of the theory of the subject.

Content

In this course the theory and working of central banks and financial markets will be teached and discussed.
Examples of topics are :

- Central Bank policies
- Money supply
- Measurement of financial risks
- Analyse the impact of these risks
- Useful financial tools
- International currency market

Included in programme(s)

International Finance & Control

School(s)

Business & Law

share your talent. move the world.

Although every effort has been taken to ensure the accuracy of the information in the ECTS Course Catalogue, we cannot guarantee that the content and the information contained in it is always up-to-date, complete or true. Accordingly, no rights can be derived from the contents of the catalogue.