

Course: International Finance & Economics 2

credits: 5

Course code	IFCB19IFE2A	Modes of delivery	Lecture
Name	International Finance & Economics 2		Tutorial
Study year	2022-2023	Assessments	International Finance & Economics 2 -
ECTS credits	5		Computer, organised by STAD examinations
Language	English
Coordinator	P. Drent

Learning outcomes

1. The student knows how risks can be measured on financial markets and is able to analyse the impact of risks on the pricing of financial titles.
2. The student is able to explain the pricing of stocks and bonds.
3. The student is able to identify financial risks on the financial markets, knows what financial tools can be used to control these risks and is able to describe these tools.
4. The student is able to analyse pricing on the international currency market and how this pricing affects the international competitiveness of companies and is able to describe how exchange rate policy can be implemented.
5. The student is able to describe the policy of the central bank, to interpret the instruments of monetary policy and to analyse the impact of monetary policy on the economy.
6. The student is able to apply statistical skills in the context of the theory of the subject.

Content

In this course the theory and working of central banks and financial markets will be taught and discussed.

Examples of topics are :

- Central Bank policies
- Money supply
- Measurement of financial risks
- Analyse the impact of these risks
- Useful financial tools
- International currency market

Included in programme(s)

International Finance & Control

School(s)

School of Business, Marketing and Finance