Learning outcomes

After the course you will be able to do the following at an advanced level:

- 1.2 You make music that is related to relevant musical contexts and can justify this on the basis of theory and research.
- 2.2 You initiate and/or contribute to collective and/or individual creative (making) processes.
- 5.2 You interact in various musical situations, contexts and/or creative projects.
- 7.2 You function as a source of inspiration for others through your own practice and artistic personality.

Content

You will receive lessons in the professional mastery and artistic application of your instrument/discipline (main subject, practical choir). In addition, you will receive singing lessons to support your conducting and you will do an external internship. You will work on, among other things:

- developing (music) professional knowledge and skills and applying them in advanced professional situations and contexts within your domain (1);
- broadening your artistic vision and identity (2);
- individually and/or collectively creating artistic work in advanced professional situations (2);
- communicating and collaborating within advanced professional situations (5);
- providing presentations and/or lessons about your own instrument/work within an advanced professional situation (7).
