Learning outcomes

After the course you will be able to do the following at an advanced level:

- 2.2 You initiate and/or contribute to collective and/or individual creative (making) processes.
- 3.1 You show awareness of what is happening in the world/society and recognize the relevance of this for your own music.
- 4.1 You reflect on (the development of) your own and other people's artistry, quality, vision and identity.
- 7.2 You function as a source of inspiration for others through your own practice and artistic personality.

Content

You will receive lessons in the craft control and artistic application of your instrument/discipline (main subject, practical choir). In addition, you will do an external internship. You will work on, among other things:

- broadening and/or deepening your artistic vision and identity (2);
- individually and/or collectively creating artistic work in complex professional situations (2);
- following developments in the field, society and establishing relationships and connections with your own musical context (3);
- methodically evaluating (your own and others') performances in advanced professional situations (4).
- providing presentations and/or lessons about your own instrument/work within complex professional situations (7).
